DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 20-23, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sica in view of JP2003029742A.

Sica discloses the use of a protective instrument cover (10) comprising a front portion that extends over substantially an entire front surface of a stringed instrument body and is between the stringed instrument body and a string of the stringed instrument body; and means for attaching the front portion of the front surface of the stringed instrument body without requiring removal of hardware if the stringed instrument body (see figure 1).

Sica does not disclose the specific use of a flexible material.

JP2003029742A discloses the use of a protective instrument cover made with a front portion that comprises flexible material.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the protective device as disclosed by Sica with the flexible material as disclosed by JP2003029742A in order to provide flexible resistance.

3. Claims 2-5 and 8 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 10-13, 15, 16, and 18 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 20-23, and 7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
